JMS Application Properties Resource

The JMS Application Properties resource describes any JMS message properties that a JMS application expects.

Properties defined here can then be added to a JMS message by adding the JMS Application Property Resource on the Advanced tab of a JMS activity.

When the resource is associated with the JMS Activity, the properties are available through the OtherProperties element on the Input or Output tab of the activity.

TIBCO Education Programs